Our extensive pre-selection measures ensure that participants' qualifications and interests match your high standards and lead to mutual benefit.

Intimate atmosphere, online format

Our online MBA Day includes an introduction round, one-on-one meetings and a chance for you to meet personally with candidates at the networking sessions. The number of participating business schools is limited – all are selected based on their global brand and fulfill the standard of excellence. After the event, participating schools receive the contact data of all attendees.

Preparation and service by e-fellows.net

Ahead of the event, you will receive the CVs of candidates interested in a 20-minute interview with your school. You can choose up to 14 candidates (10 in Hamburg and Online). The participants are provided with relevant information on your programmes, ensuring focused questions and discussion.

How to recruit for the post-corona semesters

e-fellows.net has been quick and successful in creating events online since the beginning of the pandemic, with even higher student attendance than usual at most online events. At the online MBA Days you connect with candidates pre-selected by you in live networking groups and one-on-one meetings.
